

JARCC PARTNERS WITH TATTERED COVER TO PRESENT AN EVENING WITH EVELYN IRITANI, MAY 18, 5:30 pm

EXCITING NEWS: Evelyn Iritani and Mark Obmascik, both Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists, will discuss Iritani’s Safe Passage on May 18 @5:30 at Tattered Cover, Aspen Grove. Obmascik, Denver Post journalist and author of The Storm on our Shores and My Big Year, joins Iritani for a stimulating conversation about Safe Passage.

SIGN UP NOW!!! <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/evelyn-iritani-live-at-tattered-cover-aspen-grove-tickets-1986744160265?aff=oddttdcreator>

Evelyn Iritani discloses little known facts about the civilian exchanges between Japan and the U.S. during WW II and the role of Japanese Peruvians.

In the early months of the Pacific War, the Japanese army captured more than 10,000 Americans in places like Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, and Singapore. U.S. officials were desperate to free them.

Through a half-dozen fascinating characters, Safe Passage tells the story of a little-known chapter in WWII history: the problem-plagued diplomatic coup that rescued 3,000 Allied civilians, mostly Americans, from a warzone, their dangerous trade by sea, and the painful choices facing the people of Japanese descent who were sent to a country that was no longer, or never had been, their home.

The fate of these people depended on diplomatic norms and international treaties designed to protect innocents in wartime.

To register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/evelyn-iritani-live-at-tattered-cover-aspen-grove-tickets-1986744160265?aff=oddttdcreator>

If you wish to attend without buying a book, register at jarccolorado@gmail.com